OUR COVER

Dave Gale goes high into the air to drop another two-pointer through the net as Northwestern State College defenders are caught flat-footed. Teammate Andy Fullerton trails the action in the background. Gale and Fullerton are the two seniors on this year's Centenary squad.

The Athletic Department of Centenary College wishes to express its deep aprpeciation to Mr. Douglas Attaway of the Journal Publishing Company and to Mr. Gordon May of Mid-South Press, Inc., for the generous contribution of their firms in making possible the production of this annual brochure.

A WELCOME FROM . . . OUR PRESIDENT

Centenary College, in its 142nd year of education to Louisiana and the nation, extends to you, its visitors and guests, a most cordial welcome to Shreveport and to the home of the basketball Gents, Haynes Memorial Gymnasium. The faculty, staff and student body join me in extending this welcome and in hoping that your visit will be a memorable one.

The entire college takes pride in its athletic teams, which have long been known for the fierceness of competition yet for the sportsmanship which characterizes all great institutions. It is our belief that the building of character holds equal importance with the strife for victory.

We are proud of our tradition for clean, spirited competition on the athletic fields—among the many heritages which have dominated our long history of educational development. Centenary athletes take their rightful place among the balance of Centenary graduates in forging names for themselves by excelling in science, the arts and in industry as well as athletics.

Similarly, we enjoy the high esteem in which the communications media of the City of Shreveport holds us and the regard and support shown to us by the citizens of our community.

A BRIEF LOOK AT . . . OUR PRESIDENT

Dr. Jack Stauffer Wilkes, a native of Honey Grove, Texas, was born Aug. 5, 1917, the son of the late Reverend Rex B. Wilkes and Mrs. Fay Stauffer Wilkes.

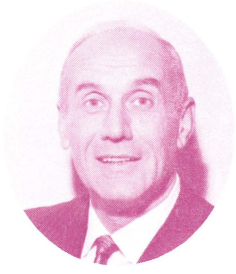
After graduation from Gurdon (Ark.) High School, he attended Louisiana State University, the University of Chicago, Hendrix College, Southern Methodist University and performed graduate study at the University of Denver, Northwestern University and the Union Theological Seminary. He was awarded a D.D. degree by Oklahoma City University and an LL.D. by McMurry College.

He practiced actively as a Methodist minister after 1941, holding pastorates in numerous churches. In addition, he was a teacher at Panhandle A&M College in 1945-47, served as the president of Oklahoma City University from 1957-63 and was the mayor of Oklahoma City in 1963-64. He assumed the presidency of Centenary College on June 1, 1964.

His wife is the former Annette Germany and their children are Sally (22), Rex (21), Judith (18), and Susanna (14).

A LOOK AT THE STAFF

COACH ORVIS SIGLER



Coach Orvis Sigler enters his fifteenth year as a college head coach and his tenth at Centenary. The over-all Sigler record now stands at 172 games won against 167 lost—at Centenary, the record is 119 wins against 112 losses.

Never one to pick the soft spots to pad his record, this year's schedule will again pit the Gents against some of the nation's foremost teams.

A graduate of Southwest Missouri State College in 1948 with a B.S. degree in education, Sigler spent five years as a high school coach before returning to his alma mater as assistant basketball coach and graduate manager of athletics.

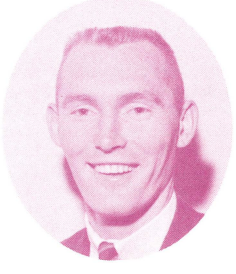
He spent one year at Missouri Valley College as head basketball and assistant football coach before taking over as head basketball coach at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

Following a four-year stint there, he assumed the head coach duties at Centenary.

Despite having the added duties of athletic director, Sigler will still continue to appear as a speaker at clubs and area organizations, where he has made innumerable friends for the college.

Wife Doris and two of the Sigler children, plus daughter Susan, when her airline hostess duties will permit her to be in town, can be counted on to be in the stands rooting the Gents on to victory.

COACH RILEY WALLACE

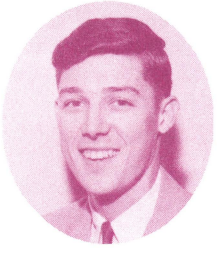


No stranger to Shreveporters and Centenary supporters is Riley Wallace, who will guide the freshmen this year. Wallace replaces Doug Mooty, who is now alumni director at Centenary. A Centenary graduate and varsity starter in his sophomore year (1959-60), Wallace was the team co-captain along with Dale Van Bibber in his junior year when the Gents compiled a 17-9 record and barely missed a bid to the NCAA tournament, and was team captain in his senior year. In that year he was named Most Valuable Player in the Gulf South Classic.

He was assistant freshman coach in 1964 and, for the past three years, has been coaching at Litchfield, Ill..

High School, in the hotbed of Illinois sports activity near St. Louis, Mo.

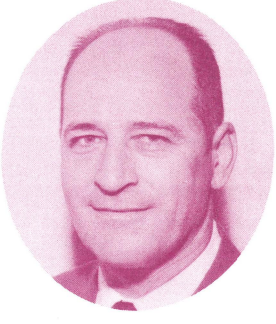
Riley is married to the former Joan Williams of Monroe, a 1963 Centenary graduate and now an elementary school teacher. Both the Wallaces will attain their Master's degree in education at the University of Illinois next summer.



COACH DARRELL McGIBANY

Equally familiar to Gent rooters is Darrell McGibany, who will act as assistant freshman coach this year. The smallest of the varsity players the past two years, McGibany is now a senior and hopes to attain his degree this year then progress into law school.

ATHLETIC STAFF



SPORTS INFORMATION DIRECTOR: Joseph (Jess) Rutkin will beat the drums for the Gents once more this year, his third at the job. A sports and news reporting background qualify him for the post. Rutkin is a fervent Gent rooter and hopes to transmit his enthusiasm to more and more Shreveporters.

BUSINESS MANAGERS: School—Jesse Outlaw. Athletics—Joe Scholibo. Both men play a vital part in a technical and detailed aspect of the athletic program and both give vocal support to the Centenary teams.

FACULTY ADVISOR: Dr. Oren Wilkens, among the most faithful of the Gent fans through good times and bad.

GOLF COACH: Morton Braswell, a Centenary alumnus who devotes his time and talents to the school on a seasonal basis.

TENNIS COACH: Dr. Aubrey Forrest, associate dean of the college, replaces Ivan Harless in a popular and successful program.

BASEBALL COACH: Don McKinney, beginning his second year as an instructor in the Physical Education Department, has added the duties of baseball coach to his chores and displays fine enthusiasm for the job.

SECRETARY: Caroline Ervin graces the front office with her pleasant smile and lends a sympathetic ear to the woes of the athletes.

A LOOK AT 1967-68

Lack of size, which plagued the 1966-67 Gentlemen, will still continue to hamper the Gents this year, but it is hoped to not so great an extent.

Coach Orvis Sigler hopes that some of his upcoming hopefuls from the last freshman team can supply some of the needed stature and help in the battles off the boards.

Heading into the new campaign, the Gents will show two seniors, six juniors and seven sophomores on the roster.

Broken down, the team shapes up this way:

GRADUATION: No losses due to graduation.

EXPERIENCE: The Gents are long on experience with seniors Dave Gale (9.8) and Andy Fullerton (6.9) and juniors John Blankenship (14.3), Wayne Curtis (5.5), Larry Ward (22.1), and Dave Tadich (3.0) back. All saw considerable service last year. Add two junior college transfers, Dwayne McAfee and Ron Stapler, and the Gents have a full complement of players seasoned under fire. Sophomore John Weston, a transfer, will become eligible in the second semester and will help greatly.

HEIGHT: Still undersized as college teams go, the "runts" of last year will get help from former freshmen Bob Lang (6-7), Don Wills and Kerry Keller (both 6-6), and Mike Tebbe (6-5). Weston (6-6) and McAfee (6-5) will also top last year's tallest regular Dave Gale (6-4).

REBOUNDING: The added height will help some here, but the Gents will count on the hustle and spirit they displayed last year to keep them in the thick of the fight.

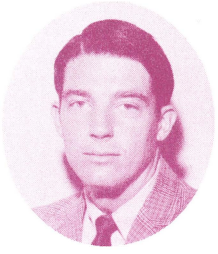
SPEED: Centenary has it and will stress it again this year.

DEFENSE: Decided improvement is needed as the Gents' foes tallied at a 91.2 point per game clip last year. More height should help here, too.

OFFENSE: A fast break exponent, Coach Sigler will keep his charges pressing toward the goal again this year. With some deadly bombers in the backcourt and added height in the forecourt, the Gents should be able to apply pressure from all parts of the floor.

SOPHOMORE HELP: Bob Lang, who tallied at a 22.7 pace as a freshman, Mike Tebbe (10.9) and Jim Lainhart (8.6) should give valuable forecourt help along with Greg Weis (15.2) in the backcourt. Scoring and rebounding help should come from Don Wills and Kerry Keller together with John Weston, when he becomes eligible, and the new junior college transfers, Ron Stapler and Dwayne McAfee.

STUDENT MANAGERS



BOB LANGE

MELVIN BASLER

Bob Lange, a member of the varsity last year, and Melvin Basler will share the responsibilities of managing the basketball squad this season . . . Taking the burden of looking after uniforms and equipment, transportation and innumerable other details from the coaching staff.

A LOOK AT THE VARSITY

ANDY FULLERTON

Ht. 6-3, Wt. 185, Age 21 ..... Senior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	19	85	47	123	217	11.4
Soph	14	30	11	60	71	5.0
Junior	26	61	58	165	180	6.9

A Shreveport Fair Park graduate, Andy broke into the varsity lineup as a sophomore and has proved to be a consistent and aggressive ballplayer . . . Despite his lack of great height, he led the team in rebounding last year and bettered his scoring average somewhat . . . With more height on this year's squad, look for Andy to hit the double figures in scoring more often.

DAVE GALE

Ht. 6-4, Wt. 210, Age 22 ..... Senior

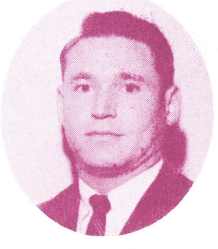
(Transferred from Kilgore College)

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Junior	24	94	46	116	236	9.8



Dependable Dave, scoring at almost 10 points per game and rebounding at nearly five caroms per game, was one of the mainstays of the Gents last season . . . An All-Texas Eastern Conference pick as a sophomore at Kilgore College, "Big Red" attracted the eye of Coach Sigler as a potential star for Centenary . . . After a hard summer's work, Dave is back trimmer and speedier for this season's work . . . His zest for the game and hustle should pay off for the Gents again this year.

JOHN BLANKENSHIP

Ht. 6-0, Wt. 160, Age 20 ..... Junior

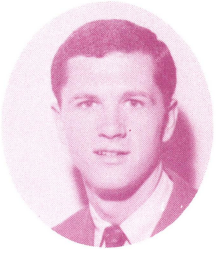
	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	17	166	35	72	367	21.6
Soph	26	162	47	84	371	14.3

Early season troubles plagued John during the first part of last season but he came back strong to score more than 20 points in six of the last eight games . . . His high was 34 against West Texas . . . And finished up with a 14.3 average . . . With his added experience, John is almost a certainty to better that figure this season . . . A great shot from the backcourt, he also earned many of his points with driving layups . . . Look for John to figure prominently in Centenary's successes this year.

WAYNE CURTIS

Ht. 6-1, Wt. 165, Age 20 ..... Junior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	8	32	31	57	95	11.9
Soph	26	46	50	76	142	5.5



Wayne came into his own during the last ten games of the season when he became a starter . . . He showed "take-charge" qualities and was largely responsible for the Gents improved showing in the latter stages . . . The Dallas junior came to Centenary on his own and attracted attention by his play in the fraternity league . . . He was invited to try out for the freshman team and made his mark immediately . . . A defensive ace, Wayne honed up his offensive tactics last year and should be among the top Gent scorers this season.

DWAYNE McAFEE

Ht. 6-5, Wt. 205, Age 20 ..... Junior

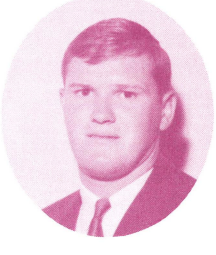
(Transferred from Walker Junior College)

One of the mainstays of the Walker Junior College team which won the Dixie Conference, Dwayne tallied better than 10 points per game and pulled in slightly over 8 rebounds per contest . . . He was co-captain of his Cullman (Ala.) High School basketball team as a senior and won All-District honors . . . Scoring 15-plus points and averaging 12 rebounds per game . . . Dwayne is a business administration major and plans on a law career.

RONNIE STAPLER

Ht. 6-0, Wt. 170, Age 20 ..... Junior

(Transferred from Walker Junior College)

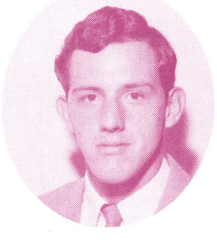


Ron is quick to tell you he "came to Centenary to play basketball" . . . And his actions in practice indicate he will make some of last year's regulars hustle to keep their jobs . . . A graduate of Butler High School in Huntsville, Ala., Ron was All-State as a senior . . . Then made All-State Junior College, All-Dixie Conference and All-Region 7 while performing at Walker Junior College . . . He averaged 11 points per game there as a freshman and 17 last year when the school won the Dixie Conference with a 17-9 record.

DAVID TADICH

Ht. 6-4, Wt. 180, Age 21 ..... Junior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	17	78	28	143	184	10.8
Soph	16	20	9	21	49	3.0

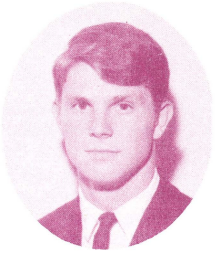


An added season should give Dave the experience needed to make a place for himself on the varsity . . . He was deadly from the foul line last year, sinking 9-of-10 charities for the top average on the team . . . And his 20-for-45 from the floor was creditable, too . . . Dave has the talent necessary to help the team and this could well be the year he shows it . . . The West Aliquippa, Pa. native is strong under the boards and on offense and has shown marked talent on many occasions.

LARRY WARD

Ht. 6-0, Wt. 160, Age 20 ..... Junior

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	17	176	112	79	446	27.3
Soph	26	235	105	112	575	22.1



After setting a new freshman scoring average as a freshman, Larry followed up in fine style by becoming the nation's 32nd leading scorer . . . And was 11th in free throw accuracy with 105-for-123, an .854 norm . . . The Greenville (Ill.) whiz scored in the 30s in seven games and was in the 20s in 12 games . . . And all this despite a slow start when points came hard . . . A team player and hustler, Larry should go on to bigger and better things this year.

KERRY KELLER

Ht. 6-6, Wt. 200, Age 19 ..... Sophomore

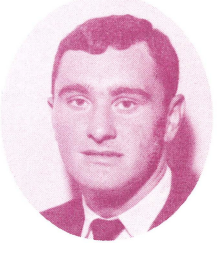
	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	14	3	3	12	9	.06

Kerry saw limited service as a freshman but is back with added determination to make a place for himself with the varsity . . . Kerry's hometown is St. Louis, Mo., where he played his high school basketball . . . He is majoring in liberal arts at Centenary.

JAMES LAINHART

Ht. 6-4, Wt. 205, Age 19 ..... Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	23	84	29	116	197	8.6



A rugged and durable competitor, Jim played almost every minute of every game as a freshman . . . Pulling down an average of 5 rebounds per contest and scoring at an 8.6 point pace . . . Slimmer and trimmer this year, Jim is determined to make a place for himself on the varsity . . . A Johnson City, N. Y., native, Jim is majoring in physical education.

ROBERT LANG

Ht. 6-7, Wt. 210, Age 20 ..... Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	23	227	67	302	521	22.7

The success of the Gent varsity may well rest on the broad shoulders of "Hot Bob," who displayed excellent scoring and rebounding qualities in his freshman year . . . Bob is counted on to lend height and as an inside scoring threat for the Gents, both departments in which the team was deficient last year . . . Bob broke the 40-point barrier twice last year, the 30-point mark twice and was over 20 points in 10 games . . . The East Meadow, Long Island, N. Y., soph is majoring in physical education.

MIKE TEBBE

Ht. 6-5, Wt. 200, Age 19 ..... Sophomore

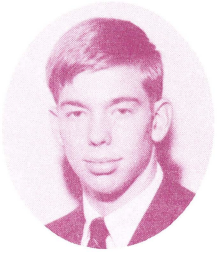
	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	23	97	57	175	251	10.9



Another of the brighter sophomore prospects, Mike seems certain to see a lot of action this season . . . a slow starter as a freshman, he gained his touch at mid-season and was consistently in double figures from then on . . . He tallied above 20 points twice . . . And his 7.6 rebounding average was second best on the freshman team . . Mike now calls Shreveport home.

GREG WEIS

Ht. 5-11, Wt. 150, Age 19 ..... Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Soph	23	148	54	72	350	15.2

Greg proved himself to be the directing force of last year's freshman team . . . While compiling the second highest scoring average on the club . . . He tallied 31 points against Louisiana Tech and was in the 20s in five other tilts . . . An All-Long Island and Most Valuable Player while at Lutheran High, he played against UCLA great Lew Alcindor . . . Greg is majoring in biology at Centenary and plans to perform graduate work thereafter.

JOHN WESTON

Ht. 6-6, Wt. 200, Age 20 ..... Sophomore

(Transferred from University of Missouri)

The Gentlemen will get an added boost when John becomes eligible at mid-term . . . He carries an imposing list of credentials . . . All-Ozark Conference, All-Southwest Missouri, All-State and Most Valuable Player in the Missouri State Tournament following his high school career at Springfield, Mo. . . . He was also selected to play in the Dapper Dan Roundball Classic in Pittsburgh, Pa. . . . John is an education major.

DON WILLS

Ht. 6-6, Wt. 190, Age 19 ..... Sophomore

	G	FG	FT	RB	TP	AVG.
Frosh	23	48	30	114	126	5.5

Showing more promise with each game, Don's determination and spirit will fit in well with the varsity crew . . . Added height and weight will enable him to be a bigger threat under the backboards where the Gents need help . . . Don's high point as a freshman came with his 23 points scored against Arkansas State . . . A native of Levittown, N. Y., he played his high school ball at Long Island Lutheran on the same team with Bob Lang and Greg Weis . . . He is majoring in mathematics.

CENTRAL AMERICA TOUR

A preview of the Gentlemen for this year was afforded on the Central America tour made by ten team members from Aug. 13 - Sept. 2, 1967.

The trip was made under the sponsorship of the People-To-People Sports Committee and proved to be an unforgettable experience for the Centenary players.

Only one week of practice was possible before the Gents hit the airways. Chosen for the trip were Dave Gale, Wayne Curtis, Andy Fullerton, John Blankenship, Larry Ward, Randy Prescott, Don Wills, John Weston, Mike Tebbe and Jim Lainhart.

Departing Shreveport, Coach Sigler and his charges spent the first night in New Orleans then flew on to Panama, where they met the Panama National Basketball Team in three contests.

The Panamanians, just returned from capturing third place in the Pan-American Games in Winnipeg, proved to be the toughest opposition encountered by the Gents.

Hampered by unfamiliarity with international rules, under which the games were played, Centenary dropped all three tilts to the speedy Panamanians.

The Gents then took on the Canal Zone service champions and the Canal Zone All-Stars, winning the first and dropping the second of the set.

The team started to click from there on out, winning the balance of their games.

They took two contests from the Honduras National Team, two from the National Team of El Salvador and three games in Guatemala, the first from the University of San Carlos, the second from the runner-up of the league and the final contest against the Guatemalan National Champions.

Besides affording Coach Sigler an opportunity to evaluate his players, the trip created a closer spirit among the players, made the Centenary name a familiar one among the Central American nations visited, brought a better understanding among the peoples of those nations and the United States and gave the Gentlemen some needed experience for the campaign ahead.

The Gentlemen will welcome another such trip next year.
